

Middle and Secondary Education (FRMS)

FRMS 7331. Early Adolescent Literature. 3 Hours.

A study of pedagogical theory and practices for integrating contemporary early adolescent/young adult literature into the middle and secondary school curriculum. Course content will focus on making text selections, workshop approaches, literary circles, and reader response theory.