Bachelor of Music with a Major in Music Performance

The Bachelor of Music with a major in music performance is a 124-hour professional degree program that prepares students for a variety of music, music performance, and music-related careers. It also provides the basis for further personal study or graduate school.

Students may select from a variety of different performance tracks within the Bachelor of Music with a major in music performance depending upon instrumental or voice performance specialty. These tracks include piano, organ, voice, orchestral instruments, guitar, and jazz.

The Bachelor of Music with a major in music performance is designed to enable students to develop the range of knowledge, skills, and competencies expected of those holding a professional baccalaureate degree in music performance.

Selected Educational Outcomes

- 1. Candidates will demonstrate acceptable professional-level performance of solo and ensemble literature.
- 2. Candidates will use and apply appropriate theoretical skills.
- 3. Candidates will employ fundamental music pedagogy appropriate for their instrument or voice.
- 4. Candidates will apply analytical and historical knowledge of activities related to music performance.
- Candidates will meet all the standards set forth by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) for the professional degree in music performance.

Examples of Outcome Assessments

- 1. Candidates will demonstrate performance skill through the jury process (a prepared performance adjudicated by a panel every semester), a performance barrier (after 4 semesters of applied instruction) that leads to upper division applied study, a junior recital of not less than 20 minutes, and a senior recital of not less than 40 minutes.
- 2. Candidates will produce an in-depth analysis project or paper in which advanced music theory precepts are documented.
- 3. Candidates will demonstrate fundamental music pedagogy as part of the studio class; candidates will provide feedback and therapeutic suggestions to other members of the studio.
- 4. Candidates will perform repertoire on the junior and senior recitals that display stylistically correct performance practices for a variety of genres.
