

Dual Program of Study for MLIS and Concurrent Media Specialist Certification (State of Georgia)

---

Dual Program of Study for MLIS and Concurrent Media Specialist Certification (State of Georgia)

Code	Title	Hours
MLIS Required Courses		21
MLIS Electives required to fulfill dual MLIS degree and GA Media Specialist Certification:
MLIS 7220	Public Libraries	3
MLIS 7422	Programming for Children and Young Teens	3
MLIS 7425	Youth Electronic Resources	3
MLIS 7420	Literature for Children	3
or MLIS 7421	Multicultural Youth Literature
College of Education Electives required to fulfill dual MLIS degree and GA Media Specialist Certification:
SPEC 3000	Serving Students with Diverse Needs <sup>1</sup>	3
or SPEC 7000	Serving Students with Diverse Needs
EDUC 5999	Professional Orientation <sup>1</sup>	0
CIED 7060	Curriculum, Instruction, and Technology Integration	3
ITED 7300	Instructional Design and Technology Integration <sup>1</sup>	3
ITED 7201	Information Resources and Services <sup>1</sup>	3
ITED 7203	Administering School Media Centers <sup>1</sup>	3
ITED 7299	Internship in School Media Centers <sup>1</sup>	3
Total Hours		51

This program of study must be discussed with and approved by the student's MLIS Program advisor prior to application to the Instructional Technology Program as a non-degree seeking student.

<sup>1</sup> Acceptance into the Instructional Technology Program in the College of Education and Human Services' Department of Leadership, Technology and Workforce Development as a NON-DEGREE seeking student is REQUIRED before MLIS students can register for these courses. Enrollment in EDUC 5999 is based on admission to the LTWD department.