

Minor in Human Resources Management

---

Requirements for the Minor in Human Resources Management

| Code                                      | Title                                            | Hours     |
|-------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| MGNT 3500                                 | Employment Law                                   | 3         |
| MGNT 4000                                 | Human Resource Management <sup>1</sup>           | 3         |
| MGNT 4020                                 | Measuring and Rewarding Performance <sup>1</sup> | 3         |
| Electives--select three of the following: |                                                  | 9         |
| MGNT 4200                                 | Leadership Theory and Skills                     |           |
| MGNT 4650                                 | Organizational Change and Development            |           |
| MGNT 4660                                 | Training and Development                         |           |
| MGNT 4980                                 | Management Internship                            |           |
| Total Hours                        |                                                  | 18 |

<sup>1</sup>

For non-business majors pursuing the HRM minor, PSYC 3800 may replace MGNT 3250 as a prerequisite for these MGNT courses.